This was, and continues to be a dynamic group of mature Latino professionals and emerging leaders, who work together to bind mutual strengths while setting aside individual differences to obtain the goal of creating an organization which reflects our true nature, an Alliance of Latino leaders. We committed ourselves to the difficult and complex task of bringing together representatives from disparate national origin groups (Puerto Ricans, Cubans, Mexicans, Dominicans, Central and South Americans and others). We also sought out organizations serving the Latino community but dedicated to various issues such as social services, commerce, immigration, labor, health, arts, education, law and politics. This alliance for the greater good of the community necessitated a non-partisan approach and fair geographic representation to ensure that no specific community was disenfranchised.
